TRIMTAPE

are pleased to welcome you to the Women's F.A.
Cup Final.

TRIMTAPE is a new concept in body conditioning by Eileen Fairbane of the Covent Garden Dance Centre.

This 40 minute cassette begins with a pre-warm up which puts you completely at ease with your body and comes with a free explanatory wall chart.

Then Eileen leads you through a series of exercises building the tempo to a bouncing finale that will leave you invigorated in mind and body.

The whole idea is stretch without strain. Muscles become firm and strong, breathing improves, and you're left with extra zest and confidence.

You'll be slimmer too, by making the body work more efficiently.

If you want to be slimmer, fitter, more confident, make TRIMTAPE part of your routine by filling in the coupon below.

How to order

Complete the coupon,

BUSH TELEGRAPH

Rangers are pleased to welcome you this afternoon with the news that this historic season is to be marked by a Civic Reception at Hammersmith Town Hall at 12 o'clock on Sunday 23rd May. It is felt that, as this is Rangers' Centenary Year, such a Reception should take place if the club wins or loses at Wembley. However, if the F.A. Cup Final results in a draw, the Reception will be postponed as we shall all be otherwise engaged (see below). We appreciate this great honour and we hope all our supporters will take advantage of the opportunity to line the route (a map appears in this programme) and give us a cheer when the team comes out onto the Town Hall balcony.

F.A. Cup Final News

Three talking points today. Firstly, the latest report on those tickets you're all waiting for is that their arrival has been delayed by a printing error and they've all had to go back for amendment! Don't worry, however, as soon as we receive them we shall work all hours of the day and night in despatching them.

Secondly, Richard Baker raises a point which we know will interest all of you, so we'll answer it in this column. Why will Rangers be wearing their change strip of red and black at Wembley? Well, the normal procedure on these occasions is for the two teams to toss up for the right to wear first choice of strip in the F.A. Cup Final. However, we faced a problem if Rangers won the toss and wore our blue and white hoops, for Spurs would then have to wear their change strip of all-yellow — and that would ruin the picture for all those millions of viewers watching the game on their television sets all over the world. As we would be taking part in more than just a football match — it is, after all, a national occasion — we mutually agreed with Spurs that we would both wear our contrasting second strips. And, after all, we did pretty well in it at Highbury!

Finally (for the moment) our new Club Shop in the South Africa Road is now packed with Cup Final souvenirs which all Rangers fans will wish to have to mark this memorable occasion. And on sale today all round the ground is "The QPR Story" — a beautiful colour publication to commemorate both the F.A. Cup Final and Rangers' Centenary. The price is £1.50 and we think you will find it is well worth the money.

For Your Diaries So much is happening at QPR in the near future that the following list of events may be useful:

Sunday 16th May 1982 (3 p.m.) In aid of the National Playing Fields Association, a Capital Goaldiggers Pop 5-A-Side tournament will be held at this stadium. Admission: Adults - £2; Children under 14 - £1. The tickets are on sale from CAPITAL RADIO, Euston Tower (or from the turnstiles on the day).

Monday 17th May 1982 Cup Final Week kicks off with very special entertainment here. In aid of the Dave Clement Testimonial Fund we shall be staging a grand Testimonial Match - QPR v The Dave Clement XI - at 7.30 p.m. (preceded by an Entertainers XI v Sporting London Benfica at 6.30 p.m.) The Dave Clement XI will include Phil Parkes, Gerry Francis, Stan Bowles, Don Masson, Dave Webb, Frank McLintock, Dave Needham, Paul Goddard, Don Givens, Dave Thomas, Terry Mancini, Mickey Leach and more! It is hoped that Eusebio and Rodney Marsh will make guest appearances. All this for admission (unreserved) of: Seats - £4; Standing - £2. Supporters wishing to have acknowledgements or messages printed in the Testimonial Programme can have this done for £10 an insertion by sending in details and payment to "Dave Clement Testimonial Programme, c/o QPR F.C., Shepherds Bush, London W.12."

MICHAEL WALE REPORT

Michael Wale works for Nationwide, BBC 1 6 p.m. On Friday nights he presents South East at Six Sport on the same show.

You only had to witness one match in Rangers history to know the importance of Bob Hazell. That was the semi-final at Highbury on 3rd April, 1982. And the man he had to mark was their normal match winner, Cyrille Regis.

In fact, by chance, I met Cyrille last Sunday at Hayes F.C. where he began his career. Very kindly he was taking part in the events and match for the Injured Jockeys Association. In fact it raised £10,000, thanks to Rangers box-holders like Roy Lewis, who tells me by the way that he intends to run his horse, Rangers Box Three, on the morning of Cup Final Day at Kempton Park. Thus ensuring a good double.

But back to Bob and Cyrille. I apologised to the West Brom and England centre forward and told him I was a Rangers man off duty. I have to be careful about this last fact as I am now sports reporter for Nationwide and cannot be biased. Despite the fact that supporters keep asking: "Why aren't we on the box?" Cyrille was very gracious and then said about Bob Hazell: "Of course I remember him. I've still got his studmarks!"

In fact the two were close friends when Bob was at Wolves. And they do still speak. Though not after the semi-final. So back to that epic struggle and the words of Bob: "There was a lot of adrenalin in me, nearly making me sick before the match. I like to be nervous, but I was nearly too nervous. I never got that feeling until the ground was in sight. There was nothing but Albion fans out there on the pavements. They gave out a great big yell when they saw our coach. I was worse in the dressing room. I was so hepped up that I didn't do the warm ups before the match. I just sat down there and tried to relax. I think Terry Venables was trying to say things to me but I just couldn't take it in. All I remember now is that everything went so quick. We got there later than we thought. I think it was just after two o'clock. West Brom were there much earlier. Personally I was grateful. There was no hanging about. I think that would have killed me. Publicly Terry Venables had already earmarked Cyrille Regis as the man Rangers had to watch for. Bob Hazell says: "Yes, I realised I had to mark him. We discussed it in the week during training. I already knew Cyrille's strengths."

Once the semi-final got under way Cyrille Regis and Bob were soon to begin their titanic struggle that was to go on all afternoon, and end with Bob the winner. But it wasn't to be that way at first. "I remember soon after we kicked off he came storming through. I was thinking then that he would overrun the ball. Terry Fenwick hit him, he should have left him. I was ready.

"Another thing I remember is that early on as well they played the ball up in the air to Cyrille and I won it. And there was this great big cheer from the Rangers supporters. I leant on him and he was complaining to the referee. I never realised I was getting on top. It didn't come over to me like that. When you're playing a good game all the incidents seem to string together. But in this match they remained isolated in my mind. They all seemed to be separate events. I never knew I had a good game. I knew it was a job done. I do remember the goal. And I played a part in that. Personally, I didn't think it went off Clive's knee as all the papers said afterwards. It seemed a clean enough goal to me."

Afterwards the two friends did not speak. "We had spoken up in the Midlands a week or so before the game, although we never mentioned the semi-final. Afterwards I thought he was too upset for me to say anything. It would only have made matters worse."

Now Bob could face Steve Archibald and Garth Crooks at Wembley.

He knows Garth as well. "When I first met him he was playing for Stoke boys against Birmingham boys; I was playing for the Birmingham team. Then last year we went on tour together as part of an all-black team. We went to Trinidad."

One member of that squad was the ex-Rangers player Derek Richardson who kept goal as understudy to Phil Parkes before Phil left for West Ham. Then he played for the first team. Derek went to Sheffield United and is now with Coventry City where he is playing for the reserves. Also in the side were Luton's talented players Ricky Hill and Brian Stein, plus Trevor Lee, now with Gillingham and Palace's Vince Hilaire.

The team played a draw against Fulham before losing by three goals to the Trinidad national side. The tour ended on a high note with a 4-2 victory over the same national side.

Bob feels black players have a lot to offer the game, and wishes more chances were given to youngsters. Which reminds me that only the other day I was passing the Simba Club in the Uxbridge Road when I was engaged in conversation by one of the members, who said that they were all Rangers fans, and had a very good side themselves. Bob added: "You do hear whispers that certain clubs don't like signing black players. Young black players are looking for a chance. For example, I was stopped in Shepherd's Bush only the other day by a young black lad who had a right dig at Rangers saying we should have more black players. There's a lot of talent at youth level."

Mind you I have discussed this same subject with Garth Crooks and he felt that young black players were getting a chance. "When I started we were a rarity, but not now".

It is an aspect of the game we should all be mindful about.

Meanwhile Wembley looms but as Bob says: "It's still some time away. I haven't really thought about it yet. There's plenty of time ahead for that."

GETTING DOWN TO THE JOB!

Steve Wicks is famous for his heading ability but he doesn't believe in any ball getting away from him! Watford's Luther Blissett is clearly getting the low-down of the situation.

"RANGERS' NEW DIRECTOR — COUNCILLOR BILL SMITH"

(Our thanks to the Editor of the Shepherds Bush Gazette for permission to reproduce this article.)

BILL Smith's involvement with the community of Shepherds Bush and Hammersmith spans 29 years as a borough councillor and three years as mayor.

He was born and bred in North Hammersmith — just a quarter of a mile from Loftus Road — and over the years has established close contacts with youth groups, schools and community organisations.

It is that experience that he now hopes to put to good use as a director of Queens Park Rangers.

For as Mr Smith, who joined the board of directors a few weeks ago, said: "The community and the football club can work together for the benefit of each other."

Mr Smith, a life-long Rangers fan, sees his new role as building relationships between the locals and QPR.

He said: "If you look at clubs like Manchester United and Chelsea you can see they draw support from all over the country.

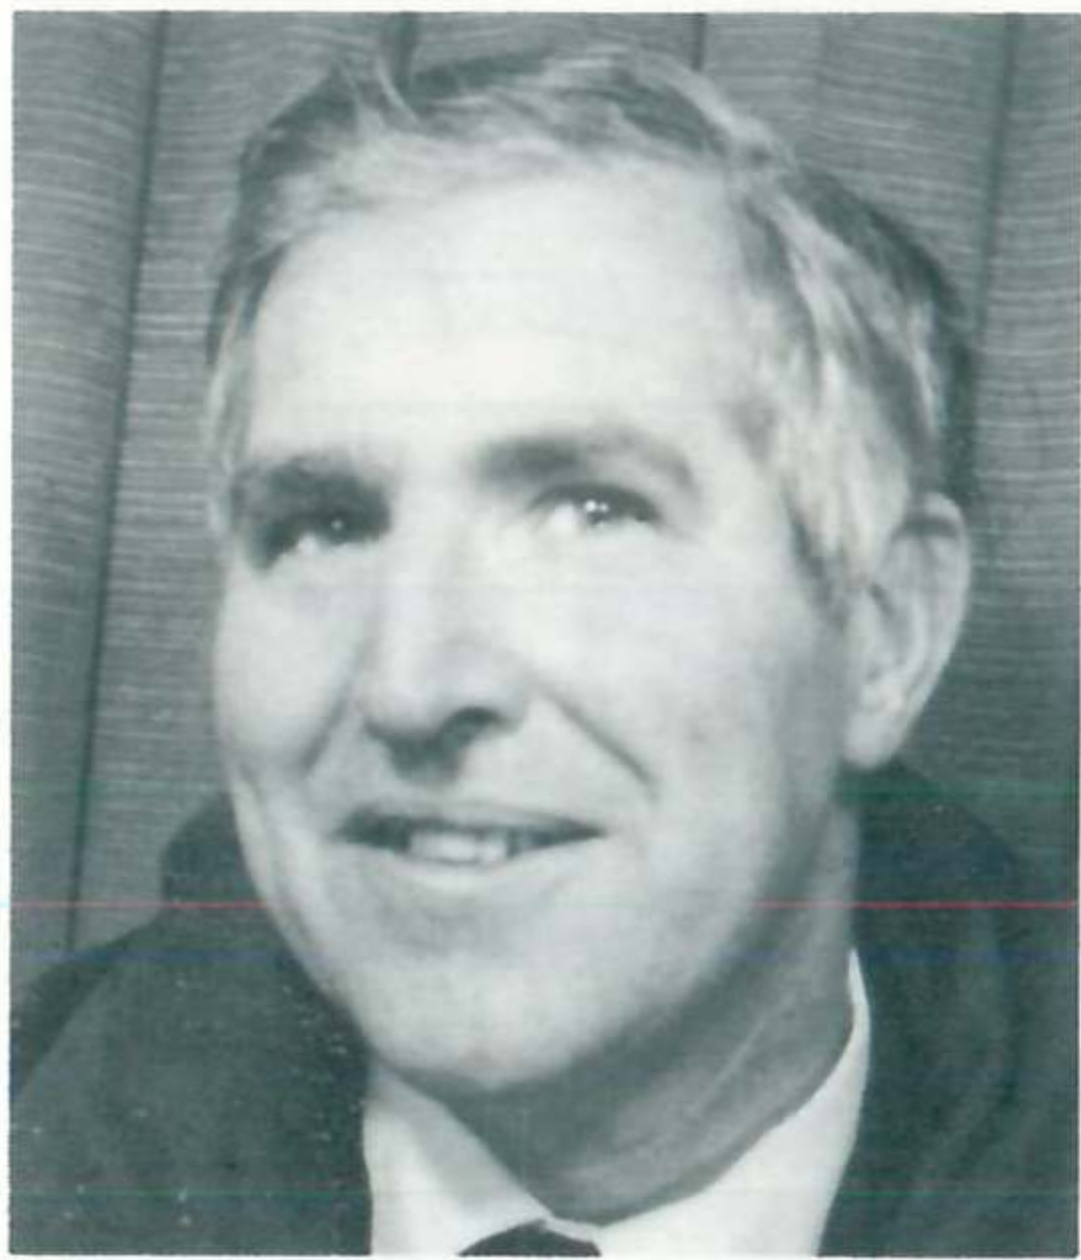

"But clubs like Rangers draw most of their fans from the local community and I plan to bring the two closer together.

"I have close contact with the schools in the area and I hope to develop ideas like taking large groups of children to see Rangers and getting the players involved with the schools through making presentations and attending certain functions."

He added: "I want youngsters to identify with the club.

"Young people form attachments to clubs by the age of 14 and if you attract them by then they'll stick with you through thick and thin."

DEREK BUXTON

Our Statistics Wizard has assembled one of the best collections of club records in the Football League and uses it to look back on the other times we have played today's visitors.

Bolton W

Today's match will be our 3273rd professional match, our 500th game in Division Two, and the 12th time we have played Bolton.

Up to, and including 17th April, Bolton's complete league record was:-

	P	W	D	L	F	A	P
Division 1	2308	868	513	927	3581	3722	2249
Division 2	845	366	201	278	1322	1031	944
Division 3	92	42	27	23	124	80	111
Total	3245	1276	741	1228	5027	4833	3304

Our record against Bolton so far, since we first met them in 1967 is:-

	P	W	D	L	F	A
Home	5	3	0	2	3	8
Away	6	1	2	5	10	13
Total	11	4	2	5	19	21

From a statistical point of view, Bolton ought to do well today. The results of the previous five home matches are 1-0, 0-4, 4-0, 1-3, 3-1 — so it should be Bolton's turn this time.

The last match down here — resulted in us recording our fastest ever goal. On 11th October 1980 Tommy Langley scored in 12 seconds. Dean Neal and Steve Burke (penalty) scored the other two — Kidd scored Bolton's goal. This reversed the score in December 1978, when Gowling and Worthington (2) scored for the visitors, and Rachid Harkouk scored our goal.

In April 1971 — Rodney Marsh scored his 8th hat-trick, and the 110th by a QPR player, in our 4-0 win; Mick Leach getting the other one.

This again reversed the scores of March 1970 — when Bolton won 4-0 with goals by Hunt (2) Greaves and Byron.

Alan Wilks scored the only goal of the match in October 1967. Bolton have scored in every one of the six matches at Burnden Park — our one victory being the 2-1 win in December 1980.

Earlier this season Hoggan scored the only goal of the match.

Probably the best remembered game at Burnden Park, was the one that took place in November 1969. Mick Leach scored in the first minute, Taylor equalised after 24 minutes, and Byron gave Bolton a 2-1 lead with a goal 2 minutes from half time. Manning made it 3-1 six minutes after the interval, Barry Bridges scored our second two minutes later, but Wharton restored the two goal difference in the 55th minute. Dave Clement pulled the score back to 4-3 twelve minutes later, but Manning scored his second goal four minutes later, and in the 80th minute Byron scored his second. Rodney Marsh scored the final goal six minutes from time, to make the final score Bolton 6 QPR 4.

The only QPR player to score twice at Burnden Park, was someone called Terry Venables (I wonder what became of him?) — he scored twice in 1970.

★ John Dungworth's 69th minute goal for Shrewsbury ended a run of 621 minutes without an opponent scoring on this ground.

★ We have still only conceded 7 goals in league matches on this ground — and with 2 matches to go, could better the previous best of 9, set up in 1967/1968 and 1971/1972.

★ In case Bolton players read this programme prior to the match our record at home in 1982 is:

P 12 W 9 D 3 L 0 F 26 A 5.

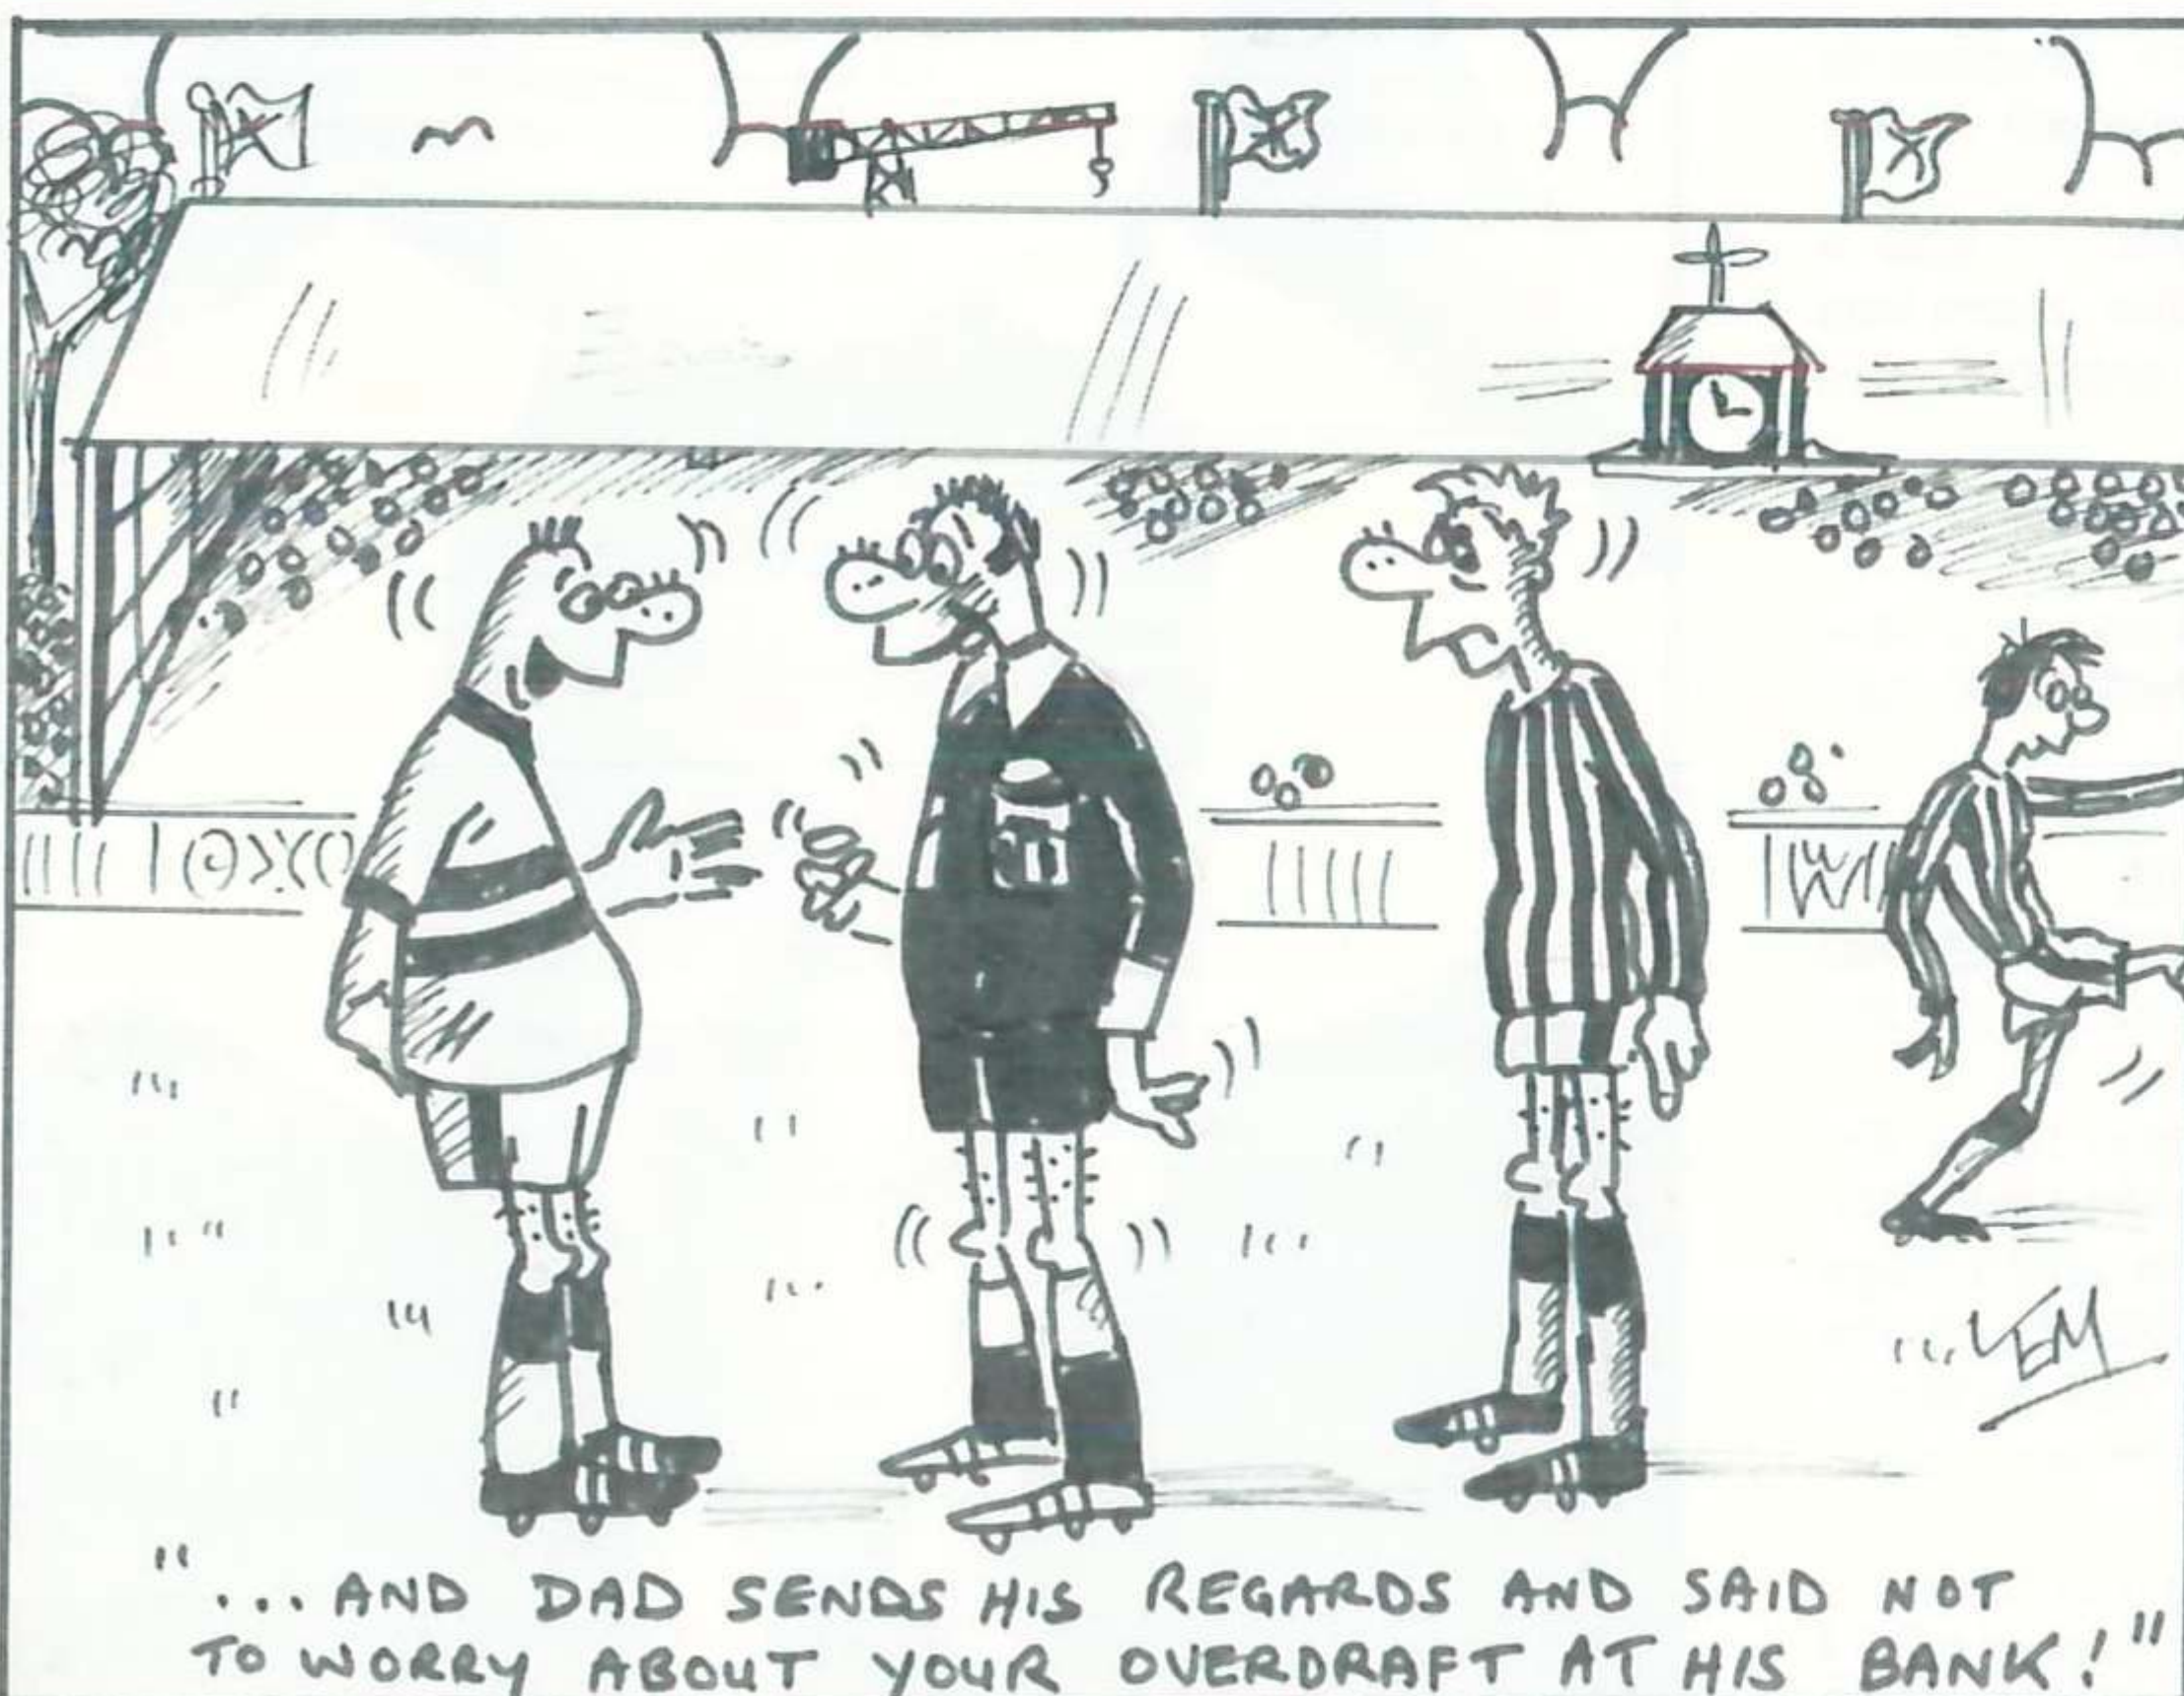

★ It is the first time we have gone 12 games at home without defeat since the period February 1980-September 1980. Newcastle ended our run in the 13th game. We did the same in January-August 1978 — West Bromwich Albion ended our run in the 13th game.

★ Our best home run in recent years was set between October 1976 and April 1977 when we went 17 games without losing. Newcastle again ended it, in the 18th match.

★ Clive Allen has now scored in 11 matches this season, of which we've won 10 — Terry Fenwick made his 50th league appearance for us at Cardiff.

★ Spare a thought for Steve Burke. The match against Shrewsbury was the first time he had played the whole match for a winning team since October 1980. Of his six previous games we had drawn 3 and lost 3.

Wanderers

There's a very good reason why Bolton — a First Division club two years ago — are now in such grave danger of relegation to Division Three. George Mulhall's team has been desecrated by injuries and he has often had half his team rendered unavailable through injury.

When players of the calibre of Brian Kidd, Mike Doyle, Peter Nicholson, Ian Brennan, Gerry McElhinney and Peter Reid — all experienced players — have been on the treatment table, Mr. Mulhall has had to fall back upon many of his young players. And, while they have all got potential, they are lacking in experience and this has been reflected in results. Quite apart from the injury problems, the Bolton team has shown considerable change this season. During the close-season, Mr. Mulhall re-signed goalkeeper Jim McDonough who, in one season with Everton had become a Republic of Ireland international.

As the season got under way, the Bolton manager signed former England internationals Steve Whitworth (from Sunderland) and Mike Doyle (Stoke) plus midfield man Tony Henry (Manchester City) and winger Jeff Chandler (Leeds).

Whitworth took over at right-back whilst Doyle came in alongside Paul Jones in the middle of the defence. But the new man also went down with an injury so the versatile Gerry McElhinney reverted to centre-back.

But McElhinney was sent off at Watford and that meant another of Bolton's most versatile men, Alan Gowling, moving back in defence after appearing both in attack and midfield. Michael Bennett has been settling down at left-back.

Since Reid's return to the side he has been partnering Tony Henry and Len Cantello in the middle of the field.

Jeff Chandler, Wayne Foster and Chris Thompson have been forming the attack with another forward, David Hoggan, often wearing the number 12 shirt.

Foster is one of three players to be given his League debut this season, the others being defender Neil Berry and forward Geoff Langley. With the inclusion of one or two players signed on loan, Bolton have used 25 players in their first-team this season and, as it has been exceedingly rare for the manager to field an unchanged team, Bolton have lacked rhythm and understanding.

So Bolton now face the possibility of a second spell of Third Division football. They spent most of their life in the First Division, of course, and it is only in the recent past that they have existed for any length of time in the lower divisions.

Founded in 1874, Bolton were among the original 12 Football League clubs in 1888. They never managed to win the League Championship — their best performances being to finish third on three occasions — but they did carve out a name for themselves as Cup fighters.

After winning the first Wembley F.A. Cup Final of 1923, Bolton triumphed again in 1926, 1929 and 1958. They were beaten in the finals of 1894, 1904 and 1953.

Though they suffered five relegations before the second world war, Bolton never remained longer than two seasons in the Second Division. Things changed after their drop from the top section in 1964. Seven years later they sank into the Third Division for the first time in their history. Manager Jimmy Armfield led them back into the Second Division in 1973 but, when he left a year later, he was succeeded by Ian Greaves who, after two very near misses, finally took them back into the First Division in 1978. But Bolton held on for only two seasons, Mr. Greaves made way for Stan Anderson and it was in May last year that George Mulhall took charge.

For all their success in the F.A. Cup, Bolton have rarely made much headway in the League Cup, a run to the semi-final in 1976/77 being their best feat so far.

There has been sadness at Burnden Park this season as the team has struggled against adversity and attendances have sometimes dropped to below the six thousand mark. Indeed, the visits of Blackburn Rovers (on Boxing Day) and Barnsley were the only games to attract five figure attendances on a ground that once reverberated to the cheers of 69,912 noisy fans.

It goes without saying that every game now takes on the urgency of a cup-tie for Bolton but, in spite of all their misfortunes, the one quality they do not lack is the ability to fight for their Second Division future.

Better finishing in the first half would have resulted in a more impressive win but, nevertheless, a competent Rangers performance.		RANGERS REPORT	Cardiff put up strong resistance to escape from relegation fears — but Rangers were always one step ahead in this hard-fought clash.
Rangers music hall style pairing of Flanagan and Allen produced a double-headed promotion act. Strikers Mike Flanagan and Clive Allen whipped in second-half headers that dumped Shrewsbury deeper into relegation trouble and boss Terry Venables said: "We are still in the promotion race." But Venables was only half happy with the FA Cup finalists' performance. "We created the openings but our finishing was not too bright." Venables added: "We were nearly three — very close to a good performance, in fact. We kept trying to hit perfect goals." There was a scare when Rangers ex-England man Tony Currie limped off near the end. With Currie due for star billing at Wembley, Venables quickly stated: "It's the ankle injury he's had for about three weeks." But with the Cup Final on the Londoners minds, it was still a sound show. Winger Steve Burke had a rare chance to shine and Steve Wicks mopped up everything at the back. Rangers goalkeeper Peter Hucker was at fault with Shrewsbury's goal. Hucker, the England under-21 keeper committed his blunder in the 68th minute, and it allowed Shrewsbury to equalise Flanagan's 48th minute goal. Chic Bates crossed from the right and the ball went through Hucker's hands. That allowed Steve Cross the chance to slide a pass into John Dungworth's path and he could not miss from five yards. Flanagan had to thank Burke for his goal. The winger's cross was inch-perfect, and Flanagan guided it home off the far-post. Shrewsbury's hopes of securing a point were brief. They had hardly finished celebrating Dungworth's goal when Allen pounced within a minute to head Terry Fenwick's centre past a trapped Bob Wardle. (Peter Gorman "News of the World")		AND THE PRESS SAID ...	Striker Clive Allen is running into top form in time for Rangers' big day at Wembley. He proved this by grabbing one goal and playing a big part in the other as Rangers triumphed in this clash of the cup finalists! Allen's display capped a performance of confidence and class by the London outfit which struggling Cardiff — who are in the Welsh Cup Final — simply could not match. This was Rangers' first win in five games but they still have an outside chance of going up to crown a great season. Allen struck first after just three minutes. Goalkeeper Peter Hucker kicked down the field, Jimmy Mullen failed to head clear from Simon Stainrod and the ball ran to Allen, who flashed a cross shot past the diving Ron Healey. With ginger-haired Gary Waddock fighting hard in midfield, Rangers were always dangerous and Allen rocked Cardiff again in the 26th minute. This time he hit a high cross over for Stainrod to head against the inside of the post and Gary Micklewhite raced in to make certain. But Cardiff did not give Rangers time to rest on their laurels. Their Welsh Under-21 star Tarki Micallef hit back immediately with a tremendous goal. Micallef picked up the ball in the Rangers half and bulged the net from 30 yards before Hucker could move. Play became fast and furious with Rangers tackling hard and goal hero Micallef limped off after 50 minutes. Cardiff's Henderson and Mullen were booked. Rangers were forced to back-pedal in the last 20 minutes but the power and authority of impressive central defenders Steve Wicks and Glenn Roeder kept the Cardiff chances to a minimum. RANGER TO RANGER

This is the column that gives you a chance to air your views in print. The replies are by Editor, Ron Phillips.

If you have a spare photo, send it along with your letter and we'll try to find room for it.

South Harrow, Middlesex

Dear Sir

This letter is only a token of my appreciation for my first ever visit to Loftus Road yesterday to watch QPR v Shrewsbury. I have only recently moved from Scotland to work in London and since then I have been trying to visit several grounds, being a neutral football fan.

All I can say is that I thoroughly enjoyed my afternoon and everything impressed me, from the match programme, to the neatness and smart appearance of the ground, and the 'plastic' surface, which was a lot better than I had expected after reading criticism against it.

The only disappointment I had was in the size of the crowd. I certainly expected to see more Rangers fans there, for a team which had reached the Cup Final.

However this will not put me off, and I for one shall certainly be back to see QPR again. Many thanks again.

Best Wishes at Wembley

Dear Ron

As a regular Rangers supporter I am very upset with one or two persons who call themselves Ranger supporters. I was at the Watford/Rangers combination match last night; as happy as I was about the match and the result I was disgusted to find that some idiot had used a blue felt tip to scrawl "QPR F.C." over the top of my car. The car is white and as much as I wash it, it won't come right off. I will now have to spend about £100 to have a vinyl roof fitted.

I don't hold the club at all responsible, but may be just a few words in a future programme will make these idiots see that it is also other Ranger fans who suffer when they do these mindless acts.

Yours faithfully

RANGERS HELPING HAND

A little late in the season but (perhaps when planning next season) here are a couple of Rangers fans offering/requiring lifts to our games:

Malcolm Bayer, 43 Mooreland Road, Bromley, Kent cycles the 30-odd miles to all our home games and back. (What a fan!) His leg muscles are just about giving out now and he'd like to share expenses with someone driving in from his area.

Chris Biles, 1 Stocks Hill, Moulton, Northampton would like to offer a lift to anyone supporting us from the Northampton/Milton Keynes area.

Hounslow TW3 4ES

Dear Ron

The recent letter of one of the fans has prompted me to put in hand a chore that I have put off since you first published teams of the Old Rangers.

In one of those programmes was the name of my father, A. Edwards, who played in 1900-1903, afterwards leaving to go into Scottish football.

My first recollections of attending the Rangers was as a young boy of 9 years.

As I progressed through the years of Georgie Goddard, George Rounce, Howe, Fitzgerald, Cheetham, Blackman and so many others not to mention Sam Abel and our own Alec Farmer and Tony Ingham, I became more aware of the Rangers attraction.

Before the war I had trials as a Goalkeeper for the R's and during the war played as the only amateur in a dull professional side against Swifty's team when they came to Italy.

My father often said he would never see the Rangers out of Division 3. He died the year we gained promotion and never did see the later glories of the team.

I wonder if there is a longer serving fan than myself whose ties go back to the turn of the Century.

Good luck to the team, I am looking forward to seeing them at Wembley but promotion must be the priority.

Yours sincerely

ROBERT W. EDWARDS

Ellerslie Road fan

★ It's always a wonderful thing for us to read of a life-time's loyal support like this. Would anyone like to challenge Robert's record?

Hayes End, Middlesex

Dear Sir

I would be grateful if you could record the passing of my father Charles Edwards — a true-blue, blue-and-white blooded Rangers fan and season ticket holder (RF 23) for many years in spite of being partially disabled through illness.

He was admitted to hospital on semi-final day but recovered enough to chirp about the result. Sadly, he passed away on the night after the Orient game and he'll be missed at home and at the Rangers on match days. I'm sure he'll be at Wembley on the day of the Final! Here's to the next FA Cup holders — QPR!

Yours

KEVIN EDWARDS

★ Our deepest sympathy, Mr. Edwards — we hope we do well at Wembley if only for your father's sake!

Colours: Blue and White Hoops, White Shorts

PETER HUCKER

Peter has been establishing himself as the first-team goalkeeper over the past three months. Hampstead-born Peter completed his apprenticeship at The Bush and has been a Rangers' professional since July 1977.

TERRY FENWICK

Terry made 80 League appearances for Palace before joining us last season. A former England youth international, Terry now has seven under-21 caps in his possession.

IAN GILLARD

Ian has been in the Rangers' side almost continually since making his debut in 1968/69. After winning England under-23 honours, Ian made three appearances in the full England team.

GARY WADDOCK

Gary made his initial first-team appearance against Bradford City in the League Cup in 1979 and won a regular place in midfield last season. Gary has been capped four times by the Republic of Ireland.

STEVE WICKS

Steve returned to Rangers from Palace in an eve-of-deadline deal. Formerly with Chelsea and Derby, Steve originally transferred to us in 1979. He joined Palace during the course of the last close-season.

GLENN ROEDER

Glenn began his career with Orient, making well over 100 League appearances for them before coming to The Bush during the summer of 1978. Glenn is an England "B" international.

GARY MICKLEWHITE

Gary did not come into contention for a first-team place with Manchester United so he was transferred to Rangers in 1980. He made one brief League appearance as substitute last season but won a regular place this term.

MIKE FLANAGAN

Though he won England youth honours, Mike was discarded by Spurs. He soon became a prolific scorer with Charlton and became an England "B" international. He moved to Palace in 1979 and to Rangers last season.

CLIVE ALLEN

The wheel turned full circle for Clive when he returned to Rangers last summer. He had made his League bow for us in 1978/79 and topped our scorers with 30 the following term. Arsenal signed him in 1980 but almost immediately sold him to Palace.

SIMON STAINROD

Simon is now our leading scorer. He began his professional career with Sheffield United and moved on to Oldham in 1979. A substantial fee made him a Rangers' player last season.

JOHN GREGORY

John first established himself in League soccer with Northampton and in 1977 he was transferred to Aston Villa. Another move took him to Brighton in 1979 and he linked up with us last summer.

JIM McDONOUGH

Jim is now the Republic of Ireland's regular goalkeeper with six caps so far. He started his career with Rotherham and, after a loan spell with Manchester United, he later joined Bolton in 1976. Everton signed him in 1980 but he returned to Bolton last summer in an exchange deal.

STEVE WHITWORTH

Steve, signed from Sunderland for £25,000 earlier this season, won seven England caps in his Leicester days. After completing more than 350 League games for Leicester, he was transferred to Sunderland for £150,000 in 1979.

MICHAEL BENNETT

Michael is a local lad who made his bow in League football two seasons ago. He had made only 14 League appearances prior to this season but has been holding the left-back spot for much of this term.

TONY HENRY

Tony made about 80 First Division appearances for Manchester City and played as substitute in last season's FA Cup Final. Bolton signed him for £125,000 this season and he has become one of their leading scorers.

PAUL JONES

Paul has been Bolton's first-team centre-back for over ten years and he recently celebrated his 400th League appearance for the club since he was introduced to the side in 1971.

ALAN GOWLING

Versatile Alan gained England U-23 honours in his Manchester United days, then led Huddersfield's scorers for three seasons until signing for Newcastle in 1975. Bolton paid £120,000 for him in 1978.

JEFF CHANDLER

Jeff is a skilful winger who began his League career with Blackpool in 1977/78. He was transferred to Leeds in 1979 and Bolton secured his signature for £40,000 this season.

LEN CANTELLO

Len is a former England youth and under-23 international, who spent more than a decade in West Brom's first-team. Bolton invested £350,000 in his transfer in the 1979 close-season.

WAYNE FOSTER

Wayne made his debut as substitute at home to Cambridge in October. He was later introduced to the attack and has been holding his place.

PETER REID

Peter has only recently returned after a long injury enforced absence. He first played in Bolton's League eleven in 1974 and he later won six England under-21 caps.

CHRIS THOMPSON

Chris is Bolton's leading scorer and he is now into double figures. He was later introduced to the attack and has been holding his place.
